To whom it may concern:

Madison Comeaux has been employed by Central Washington University Catering starting in September of 2016 and ending her employment in March of 2020. Madison has worked in all aspects of our operation and has been successful in each position.

Madison is punctual, hardworking and responsible. Madison is a student lead and has been an important part of our team. I can count on Madison to take an assignment and make sure it is successfully completed on time. I have relied on Madison because of her work ethic and attention to detail and she will be missed.

Madison has earned the respect of her fellow employee's with her positive attitude and attention to detail. I believe Madison will have a positive impact on your operation as she has on ours. Feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.
